The Honorable Franklin G. Floete
Administrator
General Services Administration
Washington, D. C.

Dear Frank:

I take pleasure in introducing an old friend of mine, General Pierre de Benouville, an eminent citizen of France, with whom I was closely associated during the war days. At that time General de Benouville was one of the prominent leaders of the Underground Resistance.

General de Benouville, who was until recently a member of the French Parliament, is now the Managing Editor of one of the leading French weeklies, "Jours de France."

I know nothing about the particular business which he desires to take up with your office, and I am not intervening in that in any way. I am merely introducing him as a friend.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
